THE MISSOURI REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

Closing Scenes -- Organization of the Philadelphia Delegation.

ST. Louis, February 23.—After the adoption of a platform by the Republican Convention at Jefferson City, last night, a band entered the hall playing "The Union Forever." Instantly the whole Convention rose to its feet and the wildest enthusiasm was manifested hats were through siasm was manifested, bats were thrown up, cheer upon cheer rent the air, and finally all joined in accompanying the band by singing the chorus following it, with "John Brown," the "Star Spangled Banner," and other popular and patriotic airs. After the adjournment of the Con-vention the delegates elected to the Na-tional Convention assembled, and General Benjamin was elected Chairman, and G. A. Mosier chosen Secretary. It was agreed to meet at the St. Nicholas Hotel, in St. Louis, on Friday, June 1st, at 10
